Day 5

MAASAI MARA | ZEBRA PLAINS CAMP

After breakfast, you'll travel towards Kenya's fertile highlands and head down the Rift Escarpment on the road built by Italian prisoners of war during World War II. Look for the charming chapel they built at the foot of the escarpment. You'll pass the impressive Longonot earth satellite station as you head across the Valley to Narok, and then travel across acres of wheat and barley fields before you reach the Maasai Mara and be at your camp in time for lunch. There will be an afternoon game drive to introduce you to the park.

Overnight Zebra Plains Camp (FB) or Similar.

MAASAI MARA | ZEBRA PLAINS CAMP

Grab an early morning tea or coffee at the camp and then leave with a packed bush breakfast to enjoy a morning game drive and watch life in the savanna awaken. Return to the camp for lunch. Relax at the camp until 4 o'clock. Then you will proceed to an afternoon game drive and watch the sunset or stay at the camp to relax. Maasai Mara is an extension of the Serengeti ecosystem to the south. The Mara is noted for its abundance of lions – particularly the superb black-maned males. See the Great Migration, where over 1.5 million wildebeest and other antelopes cross the extensive Mara River. Experience the battle between survival and hunger and how life in the savanna constantly moves. You are also likely to see many elephants here, often in large herds, and – if you're lucky leopard, cheetah, and rhino. All of the Big Five are residents of this area. The African buffalo isn't shy, so you'll surely meet a few. Get the cameras ready and enjoy yourselves! In the evening you can have an optional visit to a Maasai village ($20 per person).

Overnight at Zebra Plains Camp (FB) or Similar.
